

Confronting the Holocaust: American Responses

Jewish refugees board the MS St. Louis in Hamburg, Germany, in May 1939. — Collection of Walter Karliner, Museum of Jewish Heritage—A Living Memorial to the Holocaust, New York

US Holocaust Center Days of Remembrance Film Screening and discussion:

This year, we commemorate the anniversaries of two seminal events in Holocaust history: the refugee crisis in the spring of 1939 and the deportation of Hungarian Jews five years later. American responses to the persecution and murder of European Jews invite reflection on the role of individuals, organizations, and governments in confronting hatred and mass atrocities.

Then as well as today:

The Darfur genocide is in its 11th year, the first genocide of the 21st century and the first to be called a genocide during its occurrence. What have we learned? What can be the role of individuals, organizations, and governments in protecting victims and survivors, bringing the perpetrators to justice, and helping to create the conditions for lasting peace
