

Letting our Lives Speak

What AFSC and Friends Can
Learn from Each Other

Wednesday, May 7th

7:00 P.M.

Berkeley Friends Church
1600 Sacramento Street
Berkeley, CA 94702

Join us to hear Shan Cretin, sojourning member of Santa Monica Friends Meeting and former clerk of Pacific Yearly Meeting and of Santa Monica Meeting, speak on what the American Friends Service Committee and Quaker Meetings can learn from each other.

RSVP to events@afsc.org or (215) 241-5736

Shan Cretin is the General Secretary of the American Friends Service Committee. Prior to her appointment in 2010, she served as Director of the AFSC's Pacific Southwest Region for seven years, responsible for programs in Southern California, Hawaii, Arizona, and New Mexico. She has served as Clerk of Pacific Yearly Meeting, co-founded the Los Angeles chapter of Alternatives to Violence Project, and serves on the board of directors of The California Endowment. She is a graduate of and has taught at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Yale University and has also taught at Harvard University, West China Medical University, Shanghai Medical University, and the University of California at Los Angeles.

American Friends
Service Committee